Truth.

A parent may leave an estate to his son, but how soon may it be mortgaged? He may leave him money, but how soon may it be squandered. Better leave him a sound constitution, habits of industry, an unblemished reputation, a good education, and an inward abhorrence of vice, in any shape or form; these cannot be wrested from him, and are better than thousands of gold and silver.

A GOOD THING WELL SAID.—A subscriber to an Episcopal paper in sending his advance subscription money, writes to the editor:—"I wish to pay for my paper in advance, for I never like to read an editor's paper as well as I do my own."

There are no oaths in the Choctaw tongue. When an Indian swears he can only employ English expressions of profanity.

TECHNICAL TOAST.—"FRANKLIN, the *of his profession—the TYPE of honesty—the of all—and although the * of death has put a * to his existence, every * of his life is without a *."

It is a fair step towards happiness and virtue to delight in the company and conversation of good men, and, where these are not to be had, it is better to keep company with a dog.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.

Rev. Josiah Jackson, Disciple, will preach in the Court house in Upper Sandusky, on the 26th December, 1845, at candle light. Dec. 19, 1845.

A tailor while travelling on the Lakes, was asked by a Yankee, where he lived, what his business was, &c., to which he replied, that he lived in Toledo, and "that his profession was sitting on the smooth side of poverty, and jerking out the cords of affliction."

Mr. McNulty's trial is now going on at Washington. But little progress has yet been made. We learn from the Union, that Mr. McNulty has been surrendered by his bail, and committed to prison.—Statesman.

MARRIED.

On Saturday, December 13, 1845, by J. Senesney, Esq., Mr. JOHN MORAN to Miss LAENA DESMOND, of this place.

As the printers in this case were not for gotten, we hope the couple all the pleasure enjoyed in a married life.

ANOTHER EDITOR GONE!

MARRIED.—In the city of Columbus, on the 15th inst., by the Rev. Dr. Hoge, Mr. R. A. KNAPP, editor of the Marion Democratic Mirror, to Miss CAROLINE OVERDIER, of the former place.

There goes the last of the 'nappy tribe' down the greased plank of single-blessedness casulump into the matrimonial chair. As his form has been justified, locked and put to press, may his proof-sheets be clean—his impressions clear and free of minks and friars; should he lay his case with small-caps let him get but one font the face of which should be neither bold-face, condensed or extended—neither should the happy pair cut a — but may their lives run || with those of other (so that when the unerring of time shall put a . to their existence, their names may be registered in that book reserved for those who love and serve Him. Those cake was delicious, am it not Mr. Mirror.—Forum.

We hope the composition is so clean that a proof-sheet will be altogether unnecessary.

Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills.

Let no one suppose that the Brandreth's Pills are not always the same. They are. They can never be otherwise. The principles upon which they are made are so unerring, that a million pounds could be made per day without the most remote possibility of a mistake occurring. Get the genuine, that is all, and the medicine will give you full satisfaction.

When The Blood is in an Unsound condition, it is as ready for infection, as land ploughed and harrowed to receive the allotted grain. Those who are wise, will therefore commence the purification of their blood without delay; and those who are already attacked with sickness should do the same.

Ladies should use Brandreth's Pills frequently. They will ensure them from severe sickness of the stomach, and generally speaking, entirely prevent it. They increase the powers of life; they do not depress them. Females will find them to secure that state of health which every mother wishes to enjoy. In constiveness, so often prevalent at an interesting period, the Brandreth's Pills are a safe and effectual remedy.

There is no medicine so safe as this, it is more easy than castor oil, and is now generally used by numerous ladies through the recommendation of Dr. Brandreth, who refers to many of our first physicians who recommend his pills to their patients, and the pills, being composed entirely of herbs or vegetable matter, purify the blood, and carry off the corrupt humors of the body, in a manner so simple as to give every day ease and pleasure.

THE OHIO CULTIVATOR.

Vol. 2. For 1846.

A Semi-Monthly Journal, devoted to the promotion of Agriculture, Horticulture and Domestic Industry—Published at Columbus, O., by M. B. BATHAM—Terms, $1 per year, or four copies for $3,—in advance.

During the first year of its publication, now just completed, the Ohio Cultivator has obtained a circulation of more than five thousand copies within the State of Ohio, besides many in adjoining States; and it has published original communications from one hundred and fifty correspondents, nearly all of the practical farmers and horticulturists, or men of extensive scientific knowledge.

These facts afford conclusive evidence that the Cultivator has received the cordial approbation of those for whose benefit it is designed, and that a spirit of inquiry and improvement has already been awakened among the farming community, which is destined to increase and spread till all shall feel its beneficial influence, and the most cheering results will be produced. Farmers and friends of improvement! who among you will refuse to lend a hand in this good work? Who among you will deny to yourselves and your families a knowledge of the improvements that are now being made in the important art of cultivating the soil, and of the means of elevating the character and profession of the farmers, for the sake of the mere pittance which it costs to become a subscriber for the Ohio Cultivator?

A portion of each number will be devoted to the Mechanic Arts—this (as well as other portions) will be embellished with numerous ENGRAVINGS, by an artist especially employed for the purpose, and will be made instructive to farmers as well as mechanics. The interests of the Ladies will also be attended to, and a department appropriated to their use; so that all classes, whether in town or country, may derive instructions and profit from the pages of the Ohio Cultivator.

TERMS:

Single Subscriptions, or any number less than four, One Dollar each per year. Four copies, ordered at one time (they need not be to one address,) three dollars, and at the same rate (seventy-five cents each) for any larger number—payments in all cases to accompany the orders.

No subscriptions received for less than one year, and all must commence with the first number of a volume.

Letters enclosing current bills, in accordance with these terms, may be sent at the expense and risk of the publisher; and he particularly requests all who design to become subscribers, to send their orders as soon as possible, so that he may know what number to print. (The volume commences on the first day of January.)

M. B. BATHAM, Editor and Proprietor.

Another New Illustrated Work!

TALES FROM SHAKESPEARE,

BY CHARLES AND MISS LAMB.

THIS celebrated work has already passed through eighty successful editions in London, and is shortly to be issued here in a very superior style, with an ornamental initial letter to each story; the narrative to be embellished with elegant engravings, (from the Illustrated Shakespeare,) and the pages surrounded with beautiful fancy colored borders. Charles Lamb and his sister are well known in the literary world as accomplished writers; and long may they be remembered for having reduced to plain prose, so far as practicable, the beautiful stories of Winter Night's Tale.

Midsummer Night's Dreams.

Much Ado about Nothing.

As you like it.

The two Gentlemen of Verona;

The Merchant of Venice;

Cymbeline;

King Lear;

Macbeth;

All's Well that Ends Well;

The Taming of the Shrew;

The Comedy of Errors;

Measure for Measure;

Twelfth Night, or What you Will;

Timon of Athens;

Romeo and Juliet;

Hamlet, Prince of Denmark;

Othello;

Pericles Prince of Tyre;

The key to Shakespeare would have been a more expressive and truth-telling title for this valuable work; for no person can read any one of these interesting tales without at once realizing that he understands and relishes better than he has ever done before the beauties of "the great author," the "world's poet," "the bard of Avon," "the immortal Shakespeare," who wrote not for a day, but for all time. Each number will contain the story of one play. Price twelve and a half cents.

UNITED STATES SATURDAY POST.

New Volume, New Type, Old Friendships, and New Attractions.

The publishers of the United States Saturday Post feel constrained to make again their acknowledgements to the reading public for the liberal support which their paper receives. To show that they are not unmindful of the return which such patronage requires, it would be entirely sufficient to refer the reader to the established character of the Fireside Friend, which is pre-eminently the designation of this paper. As a newspaper, dependent upon public patronage, "grows by what it feeds on," the publishers flatter themselves that the Post has increased in interest and value, with the steady and gratifying support which has been accorded to it, for a period of a quarter of a century. In this time, which has served for the life and death of whole generations of periodicals, and the rise, meridian and decline of many a rival, the Post has kept the even tenor of its way, by its own intrinsic health and strength—now following, oftener leading the public taste, but not departing from its independence to minister to the transient newspaper follies, which, compared to the Post, are indeed ephemeral. We shall continue in this path, endeavoring, in the News Department, to present the latest and best authenticated intelligence, divested of party bias and interested bias, and resting solely on the basis of truth, as far as it is ascertainable. We endeavor to select and publish intelligence of value and importance to citizens engaged in all the three great interests, Agriculture, Commerce and Manufactures. In political intelligence we recognize only one party; and that is our country—our whole country. We know no sectional interest in our patriotism, no party lines in our politics, no sectarianism in our religion, but print and publish, "the greatest good of the greatest number."

To give the Saturday Post an importance beyond that temporary one which it derives from being the record of current events, and to make it acceptable to the family circle, we give to its columns the character of a weekly magazine, embracing Original Tales and Sketches, Original Verse and Essays, History and Historical Biography and Legends, Science and Statistics, Revolutionary Annals, Moral Tales and Traits of Character, Original Comments on Notables, wit and Humor; in a word, such a variety of matter, (our own country first remembered,) as a whole literature of the world may offer. The original translations from European literature which have from time to time appeared in this journal, are referred to as an earnest that we have spared no pains to make the Post truly cosmopolitan in the Great Republic of Letters.

Volume twenty-seventh, upon which we are about to enter, will appear in new type, and with such other improvements and advantages as experience may suggest. To repeat the words of a former prospectus, our motto is still Excelsior. Among the oldest papers on the continent, and possessed of all the advantages which long accumulated facilities afford, the conductors blend with these peculiar advantages, (not to be acquired in a day) all the advantages which each successive year presents to their notice, and all the changes for the better which occur to men in on doing well by a reading public which has always done well for the United States Saturday Post.

WOOD RECEIVED ON SUBSCRIPTION

PROSPECTUS OF THE Ohio Statesman.

SESSION PAPER FOR 1845-6.

The undersigned give notice that the Ohio Statesman, for the Legislative Session, will be issued, as in former years, full and accurate reports of Legislative proceedings will be published. The best Reporters that we can procure will be engaged, and no party bias will be allowed to enter into our columns to be devoted to the history of the Legislature. Every exertion will be made to give full and accurate accounts of the doings of the People's Representatives. Upon the importance of the action of the next Legislature, is not necessary for us to enlarge. The result of the late election has not decreased, but rather increased, the probability that that action will be more momentous than that of any other year.

In addition to the proceedings of the Legislature, and the general news of the times, we shall have a regular correspondent at Washington, to advise us of the doings of Congress. The proceedings of the approaching Democratic Eighth of January Convention, will also appear, in full, in the columns of the session, as well as the yearly Statesman, which will evidently, be of the highest interest to the Democratic party of the state.
